Approved For Release 2004/04/08 : CIA_RDR64B00346R000100230052-3

STAT

JOURNAL.

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

3.	Carl Marcy, Senate Foreign Relations.
	i inquiring about the Powers situation. He mentioned again er had been forwarded by the Acting Chairman to State printe information avoiding specifying who should furnish the inform	nation or whether it should be in a written form or whether boold be brought before the Committee. He said there was residera Fowers si considera	nation or whether it should be in a written form or whether hould be brought before the Committee. He said there was ble pressure on this matter and that people were calling in Powers al considera on it and	nation or whether it should be in a written form or whether books be brought before the Committee. He said there was ble pressure on this matter and that people were calling in substance they wanted to wind up their hearings on the Powers all considers on it and it.	nation or whether it should be in a written form or whether hould be brought before the Committee. He said there was ble pressure on this matter and that people were calling in rewers all considers on it and it unatte talking about their de	nation or whether it should be in a written form or whether bookd be brought before the Committee. He said there was ble pressure on this matter and that people were calling in substance they wanted to wind up their hearings on the ix. I advised that we still were not in a position to begin out this in a firm fashion but that certainly we were aware paire for information and would do what we could to assist	2.5
Powers all considers on it and it und talking about their detains. It	nation or whether it should be in a written form or whether bookd be brought before the Committee. He said there was ble pressure on this matter and that people were calling in a substance they wanted to wind up their hearings on the in. I advised that we still were not in a position to begin out this in a firm fashion but that certainly we were aware saire for information and would do what we could to assist old Mr. Marcy I would call him as soon as I was able to	25
rewers all considers on it and it unatte talking about their de	nation or whether it should be in a written form or whether bookd be brought before the Committee. He said there was ble pressure on this matter and that people were calling in a substance they wanted to wind up their hearings on the in. I advised that we still were not in a position to begin out this in a firm fashion but that certainly we were aware saire for information and would do what we could to assist old Mr. Marcy I would call him as soon as I was able to	25
Powers all considers on it and it und talking about their detains. It	nation or whether it should be in a written form or whether bookd be brought before the Committee. He said there was ble pressure on this matter and that people were calling in a substance they wanted to wind up their hearings on the in. I advised that we still were not in a position to begin out this in a firm fashion but that certainly we were aware saire for information and would do what we could to assist old Mr. Marcy I would call him as soon as I was able to	25
Powers all considers on it and it und talking about their detains. It	nation or whether it should be in a written form or whether bookd be brought before the Committee. He said there was ble pressure on this matter and that people were calling in a substance they wanted to wind up their hearings on the in. I advised that we still were not in a position to begin out this in a firm fashion but that certainly we were aware saire for information and would do what we could to assist old Mr. Marcy I would call him as soon as I was able to	25
Powers all considers on it and it und talking about their detains. It	nation or whether it should be in a written form or whether bookd be brought before the Committee. He said there was ble pressure on this matter and that people were calling in a substance they wanted to wind up their hearings on the in. I advised that we still were not in a position to begin out this in a firm fashion but that certainly we were aware saire for information and would do what we could to assist old Mr. Marcy I would call him as soon as I was able to	25
Powers all considers on it and it und talking about their detains. It	nation or whether it should be in a written form or whether bookd be brought before the Committee. He said there was ble pressure on this matter and that people were calling in a substance they wanted to wind up their hearings on the in. I advised that we still were not in a position to begin out this in a firm fashion but that certainly we were aware saire for information and would do what we could to assist old Mr. Marcy I would call him as soon as I was able to	25
Powers all considers on it and it und talking about their detains. It	nation or whether it should be in a written form or whether bookd be brought before the Committee. He said there was ble pressure on this matter and that people were calling in a substance they wanted to wind up their hearings on the in. I advised that we still were not in a position to begin out this in a firm fashion but that certainly we were aware saire for information and would do what we could to assist old Mr. Marcy I would call him as soon as I was able to	25
Powers all considers on it and it und talking about their detains. It	nation or whether it should be in a written form or whether bookd be brought before the Committee. He said there was ble pressure on this matter and that people were calling in a substance they wanted to wind up their hearings on the in. I advised that we still were not in a position to begin out this in a firm fashion but that certainly we were aware saire for information and would do what we could to assist old Mr. Marcy I would call him as soon as I was able to	25

SEGRET